NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MAY 21, 1897.

NUMBER 47

Local News.

The Nemaha schools close today.

Mrs. S. C. Cummings has been quite sick for several days.

Tom Clark filled Agent C.T. Minick's place at Bracken Wednesday.

Born, to Enoch Haneline and wife, on Sunday, May 15th, a fine daughter.

Mrs. Walter Hadlock went to Glen Rock Monday to visit her daughter for a few days.

The body of Sam Houk, who was drowned at St. Deroin Thursday of last week, has not been recovered.

J. W. Taylor came over from Stella Friday to assist in giving a candidate the right send off in the Masonic lodge.

Charley Woodward came in from Tecumseh Thursday, to attend the graduating exercises of the Nemaha schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris, living in the southeast part of Brownville precinct, are rejoicing over the arrival of a son, born Monday, May 16th.

J. M. Hacker, county surveyor, and Charley Hacker drove down from Auburn Tuesday and did some surveying for a few of our citizens.

Harry McCandless has got new buhrs for his feed grinder and will soon be prepared to furnish all customers with ground feed.

Dr. Keeling is having his residence repainted and will have the office treated in the same manner. J. S. Hadlock is doing the work.

Will J. Davies, of Brownville, gave us a social call Tuesday and left an order for note heads, envelopes, shipping tags and invoice tags.

Rev. C. H. Gilmore, A. L. Lawrence and Ed Grant were down from Brownville Friday night of last week, and attended the Masonic lodge.

Rev. C. H. Gilmore was sick last Sunday and was therefore unable to preach at Nemaha that night. Rev. J. W. Taylor made a brief talk.

F. A. Greitzner, representing G. L. Graham & Co., grain commission merchants of St. Louis, was in town Thursday, looking after the graft business.

J. B. Hoover has got tired of having to continually repair the sidewalk in front of his store, and has therefore put in a good substantial brick walk.

Attention is called to the card of L. H. Merritt, carpenter and builder, Mr. Merritt has recently moved to Nemaha. He is said to be a first class workman.

Mrs. M. M. Daugherty, who has been visiting Mrs. James Jones and other Nemaha relatives for several weeks, started for her home in California Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherm Kinsey, Mrs. A. Fellers and Walter Wheaton, of Table Rock, attended the wedding of Chas. T. Minick and Miss Nora Elliott Wednesday night.

Ed E. Sanders, editor of the Whiting (Kas.) Sun, visited his mother and brothers in London precinct and the editor of THE ADVERTISER, from Friday until Monday.

H. H. Vonfeldon was in town Tuesday. Von has recently moved back to Auburn, after an absence of a year or so while trying to farm near Pender. He was drowned out by the high water this spring.

Rev. A. H. Pallister lectured at the Methodist church Tuesday night on "Martin Luther," to a small but appreciative audience. The lecture was first class, and we regret that the church was not full to hear it.

Dr. J. L. Melvin.

Office at residence, south of Minick store building.

Mrs. Fairbank for fine millinery.

Many farmers are having to replant corn.

Joe Flack says he is willing to wager that he is the first farmer in the county to have his corn all plowed the first time. He finished Thursday.

Casner Barnes, of West Nemaha, gave us a social call Tuesday O. H. Hermler, a Peru normal graduate, was with him, and interviewing our school board, as he is an applicant for the principalship of our schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hartwick moved to Omaha the first of this week, where Mr. Hartwick has a position with a grocery firm. Mr. and Mrs. Hartwick have made many friends during the time they have lived here, who hate to see them leave us. May prosperity attend them in their new home.

Mrs. Julia Ward, of Portland, Ore., visited relatives in Nemaha county from Friday until Monday last. Mrs. Ward is a niece and namesake of Mrs. J. M. Sanders, of London precinct, and a cousin of the editor of this family journal, but had never seen any of her Nemaha county relatives until at this time. She went to Omaha Monday to visit other relatives.

Nemaha Chapter No. 76. Order of Eastern Star, met at Masonic hall in Nemaha on May 15, 1897, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

W. M.—Mrs. Belle Skeen.
W. P.—J. A. Titus.
Asso. M.—Mrs. Sarah Thompson.
Sec'y.—Miss Maggie Strain.
Treas.—Mrs. Mary Keeling.
Cond.—Miss Minnie Elliott.
Asso. Cond.—Mrs. Eva Elliott.
Chaplain—W. W. Keeling.

May 16th was the sixty-fourth birthday of J. M. Fuller and his friends gave him an agreeable surprise, by paying their respects to him by visiting him with all the old time sociability that carries a person back thirty years ago, when all were friendly and sociable. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames O. K. Fisher, John Hawxby, A. L. P. Thompson, Wm. Anderson, James Stephenson, Lew Morris, John Argabright, Wm. Relf, John Dressler, Chas. Roberts, Wm. Bantz, W. Webber, D. Ginn, Mrs. Seabury and Mrs. F. Gillispie.

The body of a dead man was found floating in the Missouri river at St. Deroin Thursday morning. Coroner Oppermann was notified and an inquest was held that afternoon. It was thought from the appearance of the body that it was that of Mr. Adams, who disappeared from Peru in March, and the relatives of this man were notified. His brother and two other men came down from Peru and viewed the body, but decided that it was not that of Mr. Adams, although the appearance tallied very closely with the description of the missing man. The dead man had either been murdered or had committed suicide, as his throat was cut from ear to ear, and there were bruises on his forehead. He was dressed in a common coat, pair of pants, overalls, plow shoes, overshoes, blue shirt, knit undershirt. Sixteen cents, a small piece of tobacco and a short lead pencil were all that was in his pockets. He had evidently been in the water some time, as the body was badly decomposed.

Mr. Chas. T. Minick and Miss Nora Elliott were married Wednesday, May 19th, 1897, at 8:30 p. m. at the residence of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Rabe Elliott, Rev. E. S. Chamberlain performed the marriage ceremony. Only a few intimate friends were present in addition to the relatives. After congratulations an elegant supper was partaken of, and late at night Mr. and Mrs. Minick drove to Bracken, where a new house had been fitted up with furniture, provisions, etc., and began housekeeping. Mr. Minick is one of Nemaha's best young men, energetic, reliable, and respected. His bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, and is a worthy helpmate for her husband. Mr. Minick is the B. & M. agent at Bracken, and is also postmaster. May they live long, prosper and be happy.

Died, at his home in Shubert, May 1st, 1897, Levi Hindes, aged 50 years, 4 months and 20 days.

Levi Hindes was born in Tennessee December 10th, 1846. In early life he moved to Missouri, where in 1867 he was united in marriage with Miss Catherine Boatman. As a result of this union, to them were five children, all of whom are now living, namely, Francis Hindes, of Oklahoma, Mrs. J. G. Harper, of Howe, Mrs. S. Cooper, of Nemaha, and Clark and Minnie Hindes of Shubert. Mr. Hindes had been a constant member of the Christian church for the past twenty years and was always a strong and stalwart soldier of the Lord. He was also a member of the G. A. R. under whose supervision he was buried—one of those trusted and true men who were willing, if needs be, to give their lives for their country and freedom. In his death the community has lost a true and good citizen, the church a faithful member and his family a devoted husband and a kind and loving father. But such is the will of God, and His will be done, not ours.—Shubert Citizen.

There are 140 county farmers' mutual insurance companies in Iowa, which insure farm buildings, live stock, grain and hay against loss by fire and lightning; these companies carry risks aggregating $44,000,000. There is a farmers' hail mutual insurance company which insures crops against hail, and which is paying out this year over $240,000 to its members who suffered loss. Over 50,000 Iowa farmers belong to these companies and save hundreds of thousands of dollars a year on their insurance. Wallace's Farmer, Des Moines, Iowa, is the official paper of these insurance organizations and the best agricultural paper in the west. Our farmers should read it.

We will send Wallace's Farmer and THE ADVERTISER both one year for $1.60.
